

Enhancing Global Teams

2-Hour Workshops

Working on Global Teams

At the end of this training participants will be able to:

- Understand how team culture and functionality is impacted by having team members from around the globe
- Explain how the differences in communication styles between a high and a low context culture impact teamwork and work styles
- Articulate and being able to implement 10 strategies for making global teams work more effectively
- Understand and work to dismantle five barriers to global team effectiveness

Intended Audience: Anyone working on a global team

Leading Global Teams

At the end of this training participants will be able to:

- Clarify how location, business function, and national background impact views on leadership and teamwork
- Explain how culture impacts management and leadership styles
- Articulate and being able to implement 10 strategies for making global teams work more effectively
- Understand and work to dismantle five barriers to global team effectiveness
- Be able to implement changes in leadership style to improve teamwork and communication

Intended Audience: Managers and leaders of global work teams

Workshop Details: Workshops are designed to be interactive in nature and thus are limited to a maximum of 25 participants. Cost is $850

Customized Workshops: Designed to your specific training needs are also available